Thanks for buying my file, hope you enjoy it.

Here is the quick help and documentation for this file. This game was created in Construct 3, which is very easy to use and No Programming Required. Everyone can edit this file with some time and little practice. In case you have any doubts or you are unable to do your customizations, leave a comment on CodeCanyon, ask me directly or search on Scirra forums your question. The "Html5-Exported-C3" directory contains the source code of the game exported and ready to be uploaded in your website or freely modified (html5). The "Source-code-C3" folder contains the game with 1280x720p resolution that automatically scales proportionally to fit current screen device.

The game was created in Construct 3, so with little knowledge anyone can edit the game however they want. If you are unable to make any changes and need my help, please leave a comment on CodeCanyon or contact me (richgames.contact@gmail.com).

The HTML5-Crypto-Slot-Machine directory contains the game source code exported and ready to be uploaded to your site or modified.
